From the many teachers at Leigh High School who deserve special commendation, this year's Vintage staff proudly dedicates the Vintage to Mr. Robert P. Mudd, an outstanding teacher. Teaching is really Mr. Mudd's second career for he is a retired Naval Lieutenant Commander, yet his concern for his students and quality education prove that teaching is now his first interest. During his seven years at Leigh, Mr. Mudd has devoted his time and effort to improving our English, as well as developing our appreciation of the "Roman way."

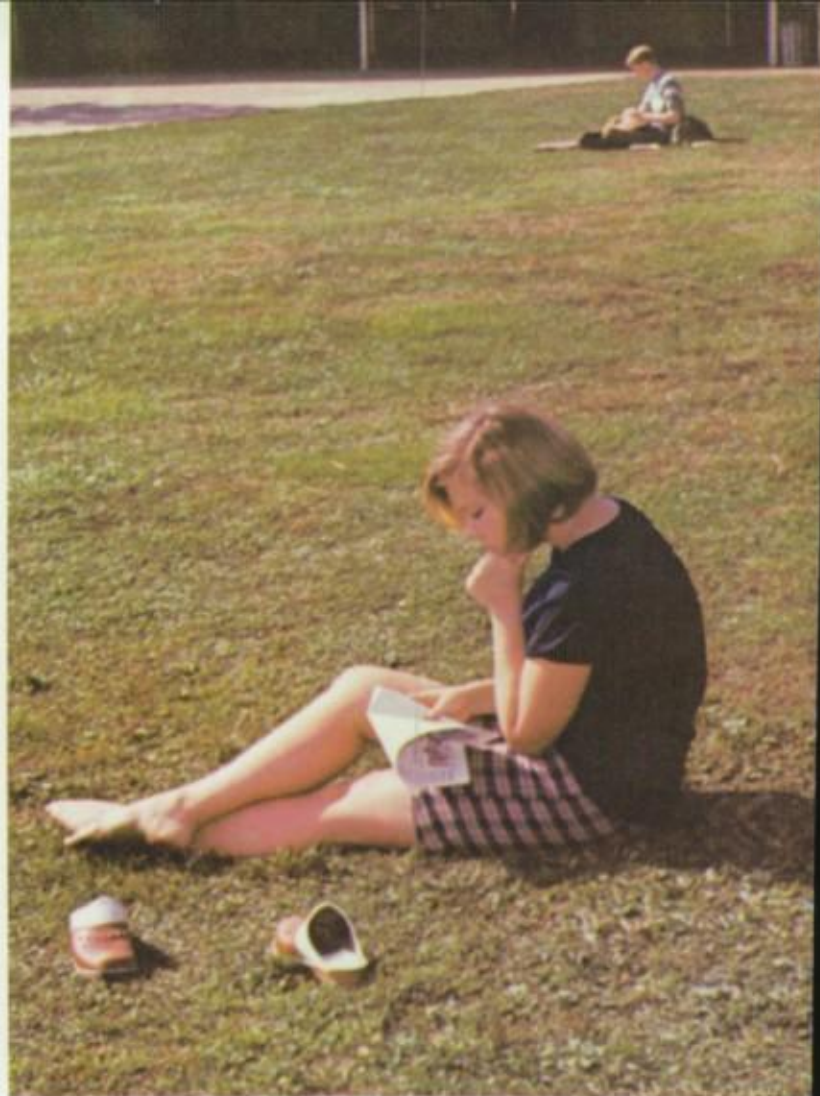

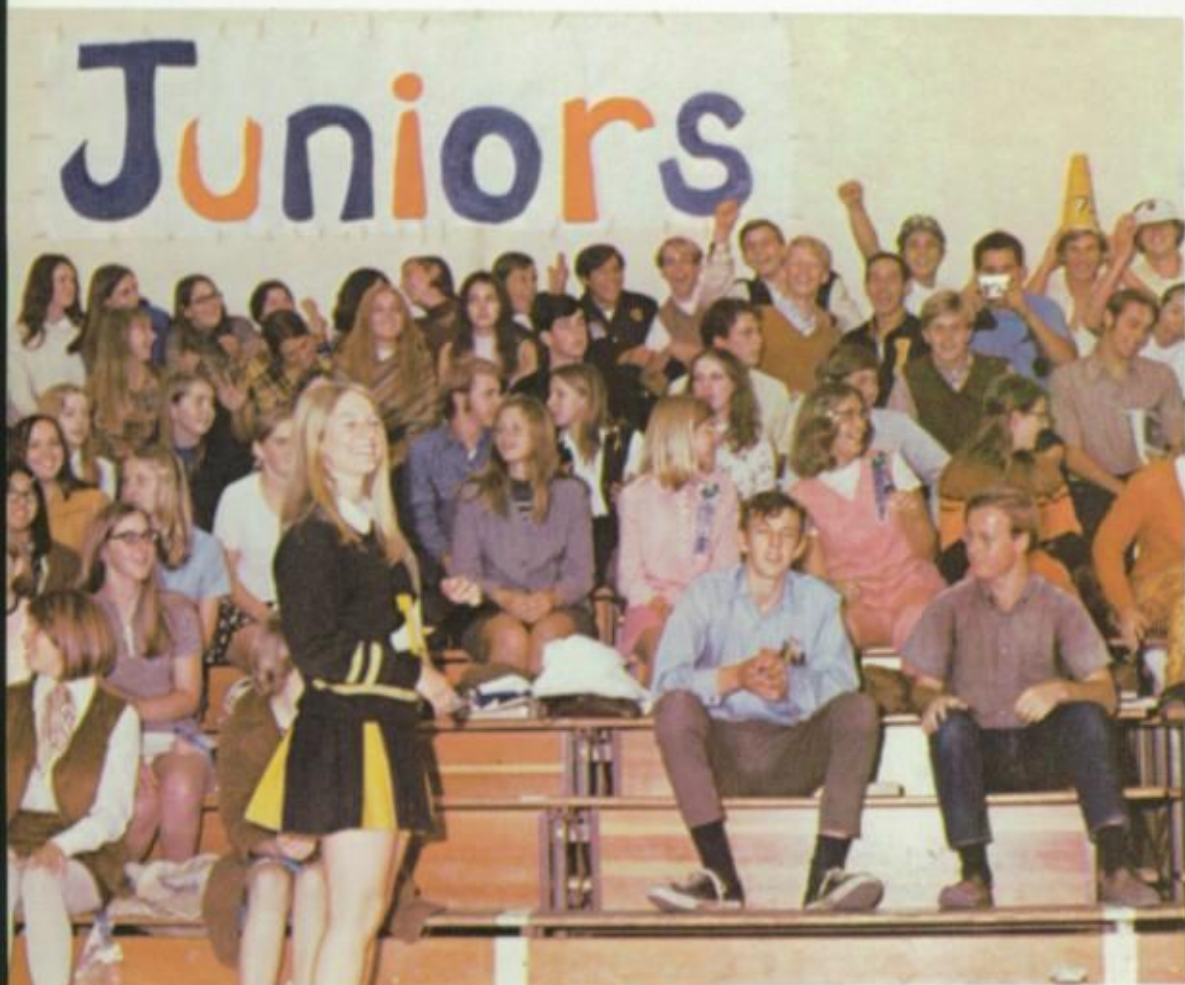

Mr. Mudd, thank you for sharing with us a part of you.

Congratulations to the Class of '71. It may not occur to you at this particular moment that you have reached one of life's great plateaus, but you have. You are closing the chapter on one phase of your life cycle and opening a completely new, exciting and challenging book.

We know that Leigh High School has provided you with the opportunity to move into that future with the greatest of hope. Our thoughts will be with you as you continue to develop and ultimately as you cause the world of the future to take shape.

Stewart Fowler
Principal

One of the important ingredients of any large organization is a process of "staff development". In our high school district this year Leigh High School has been involved in such a program. Our principal was assigned to another school in the district, so he could have an opportunity to observe and bring back pertinent information on other programs. Our Director of Education became the principal, a counselor from another school, Mr. Robert Brown, became our Director of Education, and a teacher replaced him.

This series of transfers gave each of the individuals an opportunity for professional growth and a challenge to operate in a different capacity in our district. At the end of the first quarter the personnel involved reverted back to their original assignments. From conversation with the individuals involved they whole heartedly support such an opportunity and feel they are better informed on the many facets of a large high school district.

There are many courses at Leigh which help students in the business world. Among these are Shorthand, Typing, Accounting, Recordkeeping, and Office Machines.

In Shorthand I students are introduced to the secretarial skills of shorthand and typing. Shorthand II continues with more emphasis on speed and transcribing mailable copy.

The typing classes help the students master the keyboard, timed writings, tabulation, vertical and horizontal centering, manuscripts, and business letters.

Accounting is designed to introduce students to basic accounting principles and as a preparation for college accounting.

The Office Machines class helps students learn the basic principles of the different machines and how to operate them.

english-the art of communicating

Written and spoken English, vital factors of communication, often determine the success or failure in our understanding of each other.

By training our students in the use of accurate and correct signals, the English Department strives to replace student lack of understanding, instability, and misuse of the language with an understanding, appreciation, and awareness of the beneficial tool.

To accomplish this goal, English is broadened into different avenues of learning: drama, literature, public speaking, and journalism. Plans are being formulated to enlarge the present curriculum with ethnic courses such as Black Literature and Indian Literature. To keep the student abreast of modern trends in the language of the business and social world, a course will be offered in Mass Media or the intricate process of modern communication.

The Foreign Language Department offers four years of each of the following languages: French, German, Latin, and Spanish.

In the French, German, and Spanish departments, the contract program is being used where the student agrees to work independently on a given topic. This permits the student to work at his own speed and allows for teacher assistance to the students having difficulties. This kind of program tries to expose the student not only to the language, but to the culture and geography of the countries in which their particular language is spoken.

the science of logic

The Leigh Math Department is making an attempt to provide a program which meets the needs of both the college-bound students and those students who will terminate their formal education at the high school level. Recent innovations include an Applied Math course designed primarily for senior students seeking to improve in the more practical areas of mathematics, a computer-oriented program to provide up-to-date instruction and assistance directed toward proficiency in the computer field, and formation of a math club for enriching the mathematical experiences of those students who are interested. It is hoped that in the near future it will be possible to do such things as to create a mathematical laboratory and library for use throughout the day by students at all levels of mathematical ability.

The year 1970-1971 has shown improvement within the Music Department. The department, headed by James Gerard and Clifton Patterson, has expanded in both classes and students.

During the football season, the student body was able to watch the Marching Band perform during pre-game, half-time, and after-game shows. Also performing during the year were the A Capella and Treble Clef Choirs, Glee Club, ChoraLeighs, Symphony Orchestra, Concert Band, and the newly formed Stage Band and Ensembles.

Education classes include Intermediate Band and Orchestra which help the students learn the fundamentals of putting music and concert together. Most significant is the Music Theory class that is primarily designed to give the non-performing students a chance to learn music of some form. This is done through music exploration which allows the student to study any field of music he desires. A few examples are music history, jazz, rock, Boroque, playing an instrument, and composing.

Although the subject of Physical Education sometimes brings a few groans, this year has been a little more exceptional... fewer groans, more joy. The teachers in the Physical Education Department have devoted more interesting by adding new and different sports to conventional curriculum and putting some zest into the standard courses. Some of the new additions are self-defense, flag football, and golf. Tennis, modern dance, hockey, swimming, badminton, gymnastics and other standard courses are still available, but some of these have been changed to make them more challenging and a happy break from the dull order of other courses. A few of these changes are five player-full court basketball, co-ed softball, and volley ball.

The objective of the Science Department is to allow those students interested in science and not afraid of the work to work on their own.

In Biology, students are able to perform experiments concerning chopped liver, fruit flies, and chickens and form their own conclusions from the available data.

The Enriched Physics class is designed for math and science oriented students, while the new class, using the Harvard Project Physics textbook and laboratory, is designed for average and above non-science students. It emphasizes the historical development of effects on western culture.

Chemistry is open to those students who are interested in a laboratory science for college use or just the science-interested. The labs and class discussions try to help students discover why things happen the way they do.

The purpose of Sophomore Science is to teach the student good driving habits. These habits include the good driving skills necessary for safe operation of motor vehicles, knowledge of the vehicle code and other laws, and a true appreciation of the causes and consequences of traffic accidents.

Also included in the course is Health Education. This class was constructed to help the students understand more of the facts concerning health and disease and to promote an interest in their health and health of those around them.

teachers strive for a better tomorrow, but find time to relax today

Our society faces a multitude of complex issues. Some spokesmen of the times argue for the need of relevancy in the class room, as well as in the society at large. It shall be the continued task of the Social Science Department to prepare students to meet the varied social, political, and economical demands of our society.

The senior teaching program of the A.C.G. area with its emphasis on relevant issues and discussion has successfully helped to bring into clearer focus some of the most difficult issues of the times.

Incorporation of the team-approach at the U.S. History and World Civilization levels is an immediate goal of our department. The continued emphasis on inquiry where the student learns to question and make value judgements will become an increasing part of all levels of discussion of the social sciences.

The times demand that teacher and student understanding of the intense attitudes held by many today. To meet this need to feel as others feel, this department will move to incorporate more simulations where students can role-play the many factions of today's society. The success of the Sunshine simulation at the senior level is an example of the possible use of simulations at all department levels.

foreign countries lend students to leigh

Hi! I am one of the exchangeees, you know, the foreign ones. I am from Germany, but I am not more of a typical German than you are of a typical American—by the way, are you?

You might not know or not remember me, after all, I've been on the campus for only a year, and in my classes I have tried to be a rather quiet kid; I admit I didn't always succeed, but I tried.

This was the first time for me, that I could choose my classes as I pleased, which I did. But there were many more classes than I could possibly fit into my schedule, which does not mean that I didn't take an Independent Study Center to get out of here early sometimes.

Also, in Germany there are no activities going on after school; we get out at noon, and try not to think about anything connected with school for the next eighteen hours. Sometimes I think we would be glad, if there were some activities for us at school. Here, however, I discovered a vital disinterest for most of them.

I have learned a lot during this year. I never thought I could learn so much in one year. Of some days I thought, "They will never pass by," but they all did. Looking back, it was a good year, and if I had the chance, I'd do it all again, Thank you.

Heidemarie Kohn

I am from Chile and my name is Ximena. I would like to say that I will never forget this wonderful experience of living in the United States.

I would also like to say thanks very much to all the people who have helped me: the teachers; the students; and my friends.

I want you to know that you will all be in my thoughts forever.

Ximena Barrera

Dear Leigh High,

First of all I want to thank the "Youth for Understanding" that I underwent one of the most beautiful years in my life. I enjoyed myself very much and I have to thank the Phillips family which was so good and kind to me.

I found Leigh High to be a very modern and good school. It was different from my school.

The school day here was longer. A very big difference was the same schedule every day. In my school I had different schedules every day, but don't think that I had dull days in school. Every day something new happened to amuse us.

I found the teachers here were very friendly, and they helped me and didn't care about my first mistakes. Maybe that is why I was doing very well in school here—because I was encouraged.

I like your sport activities very much. I have played soccer and found many friends in my Varsity Soccer Team. I found many friends in school, because you students are friendly.

It was a good experience for me; I learned many things about the U.S.A.: about your living; about people. I know that my living here and Leigh High will be unforgettable for me.

I wish to thank the teachers and counselors for their help and you students for friendship and kindness.

I don't like to say "Good-bye" to you, I would rather say: Come to see my country, yes, Yugoslavia, and I will show you our beautiful country. So, to all of you: See you around.

Ivan Lorencic
Yugoslavia

This year in the USA is a fantastic experience for me. The USA is an important world power and in Hilland we hear all different things about it. One of the reasons I came over here was to find out for myself what America was like.

Most of my memories of this year will be about Leigh High School. It is quite different from my old school in Holland, because at my school were only three hundred students, so at first I felt completely lost here. Our schools are for studying only; after graduation we know a lot, but we can't really do much with it. Your school is more a mini-society with all the events and clubs it has. After graduation you might not have learned as much as we, but you can do a lot more. It is rather hard to break off your life back home completely, and start again here, but it was worth it; and with the help of all the people here that have become my friends, it wasn't so hard after all.

Froukje Balk

My name is Mark Guimaraes. I live in Belo Horizonte, Brazil. I'm fifteen years old, and I have a big family: five brothers and one sister. My father is a manager and my mother is an English Teacher.

Here in the United States, I live with Mr. and Mrs. James Allen, I'm really getting great experiences in the U.S. It's another world and everything is different. In the beginning I had many difficulties, but now everything is all right. I'm feeling very at ease at Leigh; it's a big school, and everybody is attentive. I like it here very much. I'm a senior and have the following subjects: Spanish, P.E., A.C.G., Study Center, English I and English II.

I will be here until June, so I hope to make a lot of friends.

in memorium

The Senior class dedicated this poem to the memory of Peggy Tingley.

We are born to sleep Until
Softly woke by the Harmony of our Soul
Feeling . . .
Hearing . . .
Touching . . .
the sun and newly born day—
Drinking the sweet dew from His flowers of Life
Nourished on Heavenly Love
We have walked together in this Life
And Loved
We are One in the Spirit
And shall be Evermore.

'lever nu jour'

With La Rinconada the setting, the Chosen Few the entertainment and Lever Nu Jour the theme, the senior ball was an occasion for all concerned to cherish and remember for years and years to come.

*Dave, you were really an experience to have in class! But really you added a bright spot to a dull class. Hope to see you in some of my classes next year. Have a fantastic summer, see ya

A grainy, black and white photograph of a crowd of people, possibly at a sporting event or a public gathering. The image is heavily textured with noise, giving it a vintage or artistic feel. The word "spirit" is overlaid in a bold, serif font, positioned in the upper right quadrant of the image. The background shows a dense crowd of people, with some individuals more clearly visible than others. The overall mood is energetic and suggests a sense of collective spirit.

Coaches Message:

"The formula for winning calls for total involvement." A player must have desire and true dedication. He must possess great spirit and individual courage; he must have self-sacrifice and pride; and he must give absolute loyalty and devotion to his team. This year's team was the living example of the winning formula in action.

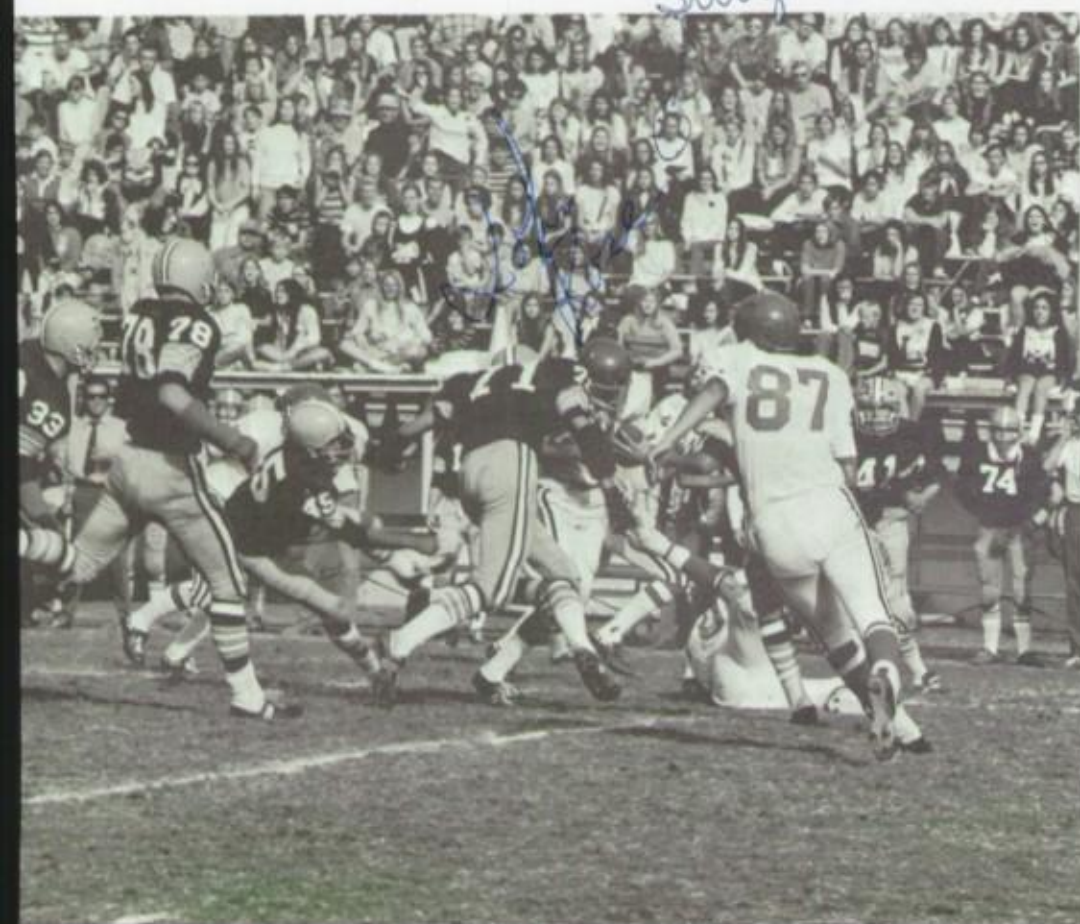

Their total involvement led them to the league championship and the first undefeated league season in the school's history. The offensive team which led Northern California in scoring with 453 points, was spearheaded by a talented foursome of Mike Franz, who was selected as the outstanding back of the year in Northern California, and who led the northern part of the state in rushing with 1839 yards and scoring with 180 points; Quarterback Brian Shelby, who led the C.C.S. in touchdown passes with 29 and had a two years total of 47; Steve Oliver, who was selected All-Northern California End and who had 15 touchdown receptions; Bob Hampton, all C.C.S. selection, who gained over 1,000 yards for the second straight year; and all C.C.S. Tackle, Charles Cardinal, who led a strong line comprised of Rick Miller, Phil Smyth, Mike Helppie, Frank Iadiano, John Rose, Jim Davis, Jack Lamoth, and our outstanding blocking fullback, Greg Ramona.

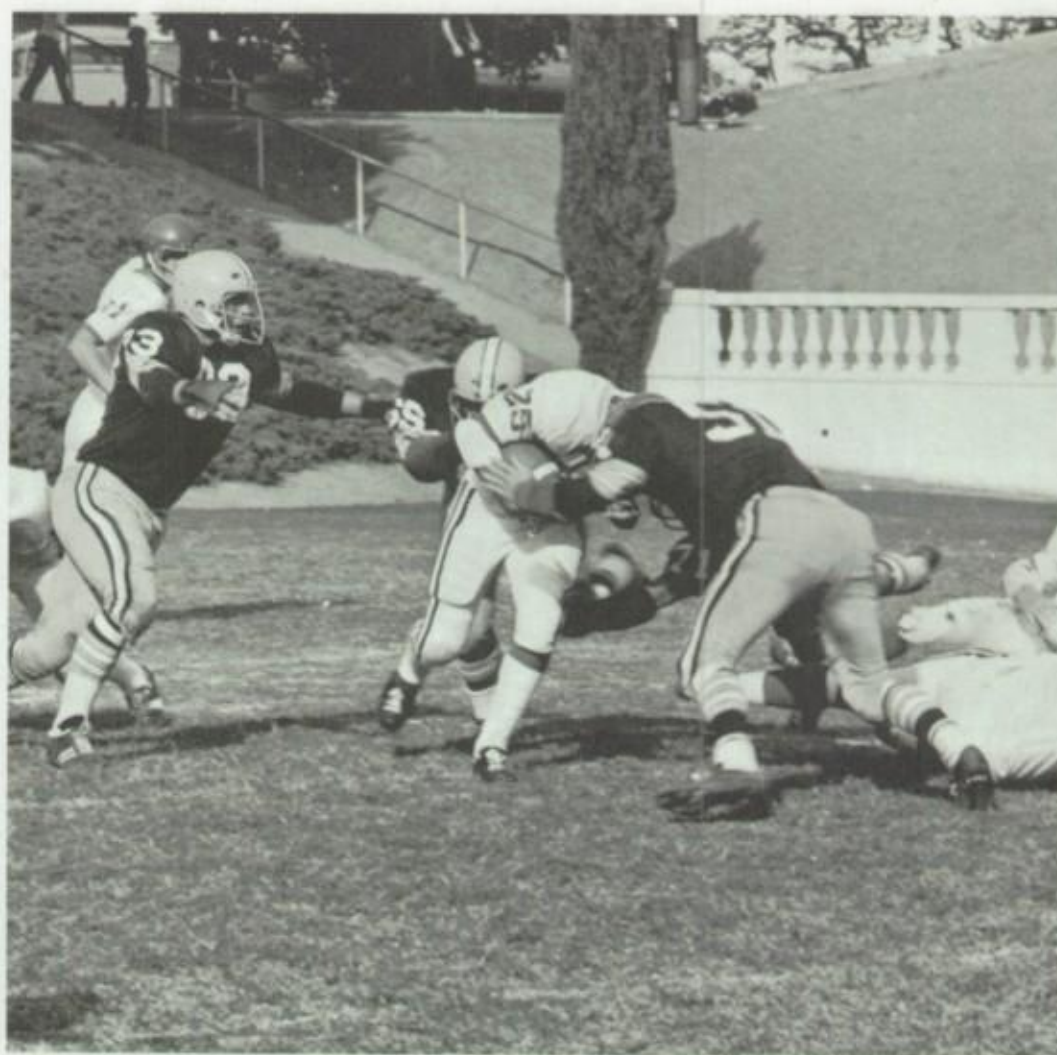

The defensive team which was first in the league for the second straight year was led by All-C.C.S. linebacker, Steve Cobler, and All-Leaguers Doug Gerdwagen, Larry Earnhart, Ken Padia, Rick Miramontez, Tom Roberts, Bob Ichien and Gary Mrdutt. Standouts were Gary Padia, Mike Oliver, Greg Warren and Jim Moody.

The graduating seniors have compiled a 19-2-1 record over the past two seasons and the coaching staff is extremely proud of the efforts of these young men.

We wish them great success and total fulfillment in their future lives. We are enthusiastically looking forward to working with our underclassmen next season.

leigh high varsity basketball

This years coach's message is dedicated to the fine young men who, so unselfishly, gave of themselves in order to win another W.V.A.L. championship for Leigh. There were no super stars on the team, just fourteen young men, with pride in themselves and their school, who knew what it took to be winners. And they were!

During the past two seasons these young men have established a basketball tradition for Leigh that can only be an inspiration for years to come. Their two-year league record of 29-3 and overall record of 45-11 will be hard to equal. Thank you again, team, for the splendid memories and the pleasant association.

Special thanks to Mr. Bob Burton for his great contribution to our success, to Mr. Rich Frank for his valuable scouting reports, to Mr. Latimer and the physical education department for their support, to the cheerleaders, song-girls, and letter-girls for their enthusiasm, to Mr. Fowler for his interest, and, perhaps, most importantly, to the student-body without whose backing there would be no athletic program.

This staff has spent many hours of their time in compiling, comparing, and computing sundry photographs, ideas, and words for the publication of this book. The job is not a glamorous one, but then neither is it a tedious one. It involves an adeptness for creativity and a willingness to work. As with most things, this book is what YOU make of it, a nostalgic index or a paperweight. Whatever your use, these people made it possible.

Do you know what the word collage means? Not many people do. A collage is a composition of assorted materials not normally associated with each other. What word could be found that more accurately describes the 'work of art' these people make? Their materials come from you students of Leigh. Their Collage represents you and your life. No other one thing is capable of relating thoughts as well as poetic words. This, combined with thought-inspired drawings, is what Collage is all about. These are the people to thank for giving you an escape which is worthwhile and enjoyable, for yourself and others to benefit from. Creativity is everybody's business; but for these students, it's a life. Few schools are as fortunate as we to have students on the campus interested enough in other people to do something about it.

Publishing a newspaper requires more time and energy than most people realize. The staff members of "Eleight" decided a couple of years ago that they were going to, individually, tackle this job and see that it gets done. Your memory of the year, its victories and defeats, indicates how well these people have accomplished that difficult goal which they had years ago aspired to. Every other week they rolled another issue off of the presses, in time for your viewing. They unrelentlessly worked with the paper itself, improving and improvising to the best of their ability. Well aware of the obligation they had to you people in getting all the facts, the paper was not purely news oriented but was often highlighted with quizzical features that enlightened ones day. Here, we want to thank you for the services well performed.

Here I will take time to include the list of these people whose efforts were well spent in the production of this album. Special thanks should be given to Miss Miriam Green, our advisor, and Miss Mitchell, our assistant advisor, who together unerringly led us in the right direction, lending advice, criticism, and support in their strive for imaginative perfection. It is not for the faithful assistance of these faculty members, it is doubtful this book would be capable of expressing the quality that it does.

Our own Photo Commission here at Leigh and its advisor, Mr. Deis, deserves recognition for the time spent by them in preparing pictures for us and others. Considering the difficulties, we properly acknowledge the efforts of those few concerned with photography enough to work with it.

The members of the VINTAGE staff justify particular praise for the untiring service they administered in preparing this publication for printing. Untold weekends have been spent by this staff in order that this book would get in on time for your enjoyment. Every member has acquired an invaluable source of understanding which will enable him to better meet his ideals.

Having dispensed with the gratuities, I would like to sum up by directing next year's leaders: it falls upon your shoulders to propagate the successes of this year and produce your own accomplishments of singular quality. Only then will you have captured the year's existence.

Dave,
To a really nice guy who I've known for almost 6 years. Wow, the time sure went by fast. Remember when we were little we used to build those boats in my backyard when we lived across the street from you?
Have a real good summer.
See ya soon,
Debbie

Dave,

Hi, how are ya? Well, here

I am what can I say - I think you're a really neat guy & I like ya alot - I hope we can be friends always. It's good to know you're a Christian - because being a Christian is the best thing you could do. Well I guess I gotta say good-bye - but I want ya to come see me okay? Okay. Well I bet ter go. Love always Janel

Dave
hope you have a super summer and a great ^{time} next year as a Junior. (Pitty this school.)
But it was fun knowing you and your brother.
See you next year but not in Algebra II. Kathy Williams

It's been great fun in driving. You're going to be a fantastic football player and every game I'm going to be yelling!
Good-luck

Dave,
I'm glad I got to know you this year, ~~now~~ now I know what you're really like, Ha!
Glad you came to campus life.
Have fun this summer

To a great guy who knows how to have a good time.
Have fun and good luck - Love,

Marilyn, Donald

Dave,
You're really a great guy - that's what I'm glad we got to know each other - be humble though - That was really a neat thing to do - I'm glad you talked me in to going - be yourself whatever you do - stick by what you believe is right - but understand other people's point of view - Trust in the Lord - He's really something you can depend on -
Love, Sue Maurer

Dave, well we made another year. It's been fun. we had alot of fun in geometry to bad you wouldn't have sat by us longer. It's funny how we've gotten alot of the same homework, huh? well good luck next year in Algebra II, how well you be able to get thru it without getting and I. Have fun this summer and don't get into trouble. Good luck next year and the years. to come. God bless
